of the Exchange Discussed.

The board of governors of the mining exchange met yesterday afternoon behind closed doors and discussed several matters of more or less importance bearing on the welfare of the exchange. Among other things a decision was reached that an effort should be made to get all the companies whose stocks were dealt in on the open board to list them on the exchange. This action was decided upon, it was said, to offset as far as possible the pernicious practice of hatching up fictitious quotations on the street after business hours, and to confine the nore stringent rules governing busireached. In addition to asking the mining company managements to do as suggested above, it is understood that they also took up the question of listing industrial and bank stocks, but what the talk on that subject resulted in could not be learned.

The action of members in continuing to do business last Saturday after closing hours also came in for criticism, and there is reason to believe that a the exchange against whom charges could be sustained.

Now that business is picking up, the governing board begins to see the necessity of protecting the mining companies and the public also, and while the jobber, laundryman and the scalper will most likely raise an indignant howl, the legitimate broker and dealer will most of the control of the con

DEMONSTRATION FOR AN ADVANCE

Wall Street Speculators Undertake to Boost the Market.

BOLD DASH MADE BY BULLS

ADVANCE CONFINED TO A LIM-ITED NUMBER OF STOCKS.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—Today's stock market reflected a very determined demonstration for an advance, but effective operations were advance, but effective operations were confined to a very limited number of stocks. The speculation was clearly under the same auspices as that which originated in Southern Pacific last week, and which was predicated upon the return to the street of a well known speculative leader. The boldness and the dash of today's operations were inflicative of the personal direcness and the dash of today's operations were indicative of the personal direction of this leader. The early advance in Southern Pacific was taken advantage of to effect very heavy profit-taking, which completely wiped out opening gains. Instead of resuming the campaign immediately in that stock, it was shifted to its affiliated stock, Union Pacific, and to B. & O., in the east. The sympathetic response of these movements was almost wholly east. The sympathetic response of these movements was almost wholly confined to stocks immediately related In the case of Baltimore & Ohio, these were the Pennsylvania and Chesapeake & Chio. Southern Pacific made some recovery, in sympathy with Union Pacific. There were gains here and there amongst the grangers, but on very light transactions. Northwestern's 2%, point rise in resonate to the feverable. nght transactions. Northwestern's 2%, point rise in response to the favorable annual report was made on a single transaction. Minneapolis, St. Paul & Sault Ste. Marie advanced violently 5%, and Evansville & Terre Haute gained 3¼ without explanation. In the rallroad district other gains were few, and among obscure stocks. The ex-vance, in concert with no news to throw light on the movement. Amongst the specialties Western Union, Manhattan and Tennessee Coal union, Mannattan and Tennessee Coai were the most conspicuous examples of strength. It was a notable feature that a large mass of securities of very prominent railroad companies lay practically dormant throughout the session, and there were prominent examples showing net losses. This disingular control of the control of amples showing net losses. This disin-clination to follow the bold leadership proffered by the active stocks was due to the uncertainty over the m

Today's foreign exchange market was easier, in spite of higher discount rates in London, lower sterling in Paris, and considerable sales of stocks for London account here. The rate for call money was also undisturbed, opening at 4 per cent, and yielding to below call money was also undisturbed, opening at 4 per cent, and yielding to below that rate.
